Instant service, worry-free life

Consultation

Each household registration office in this city has the dedicated personnel known as "New Immigrant Life Adaptation Counseling Service Contact Persons" to help explain questions related to adaptation to life in Taiwan, application for household registration, naturalization to obtain the national identification card (Taiwan). Please feel free to contact us.

Counseling

Civil Affairs Bureau and household registration offices have set up "New Immigrants' Life Adaptation Counseling Classes" and provided various life skills assistance courses to help new immigrants smoothly integrate into our country's living environment, develop correct life concepts, comprehend their own rights and interests, and recognize and understand Taiwanese culture.
